Overview:

The World Congress on Pediatric, Child Health, and Neonatal Care (NeoCare 2026) will take place from October 22-24, 2026, in Orlando, USA, with an option to join virtually from anywhere in the world. Organized by the Iris Scientific Group, NeoCare 2026 aims to unite pediatricians, neonatologists, child health specialists, nurses, researchers, and healthcare professionals to share knowledge, exchange ideas, and discuss the latest advancements in child and neonatal care.

The conference will feature keynote presentations, scientific sessions, workshops, poster displays, and networking opportunities, providing a global platform to explore innovative research and clinical practices. Topics will cover a wide range of areas, including pediatric infectious diseases, neonatal intensive care, childhood nutrition, mental health, developmental disorders, and advanced therapies.

Call for Papers

Participants are invited to share their research and findings by submitting abstracts for consideration in the scientific sessions. A standardized template for submissions can be found on the "Abstract Submission" page of the conference website. All accepted abstracts will be featured in the extended abstract book, which will be accessible online and distributed at the conference.
